Scoot Kickstarts a Ten-tastic Anniversary with its Largest Network Sale Ever

More than 200,000 seats with fares as low as SGD 55!

Providing guests with fantastic value airfares, a constantly expanding network and travel with a dash of Scootitude for a decade! Scoot's first flight lands in Sydney on 5 June 2012.

Singapore – Scoot, the low-cost subsidiary of Singapore Airlines (SIA), celebrates ten years of flights this June and, to kick off celebrations, has launched its biggest-ever network sale.

Well-known for offering great value airfares, a wide network and its unique “Scootitude”, Scoot has grown from a single aircraft and route to now serve 73 destinations¹ with 59 aircraft. Over the last decade, Scoot has carried more than 65 million guests.

In celebration of the 10-year milestone, Scoot is offering more than 226,000 super-discounted seats across its network – even to the very newest addition, Jeju! Fare deals start from SGD 55 to Kuala Lumpur, SGD 79 to Bali, SGD 80 to Bangkok, and SGD 179 to Berlin (one way, tax inclusive). So, dust

Scootin’ Through The Years

2012: Scoot flight TZ2 took to the skies, scootin’ passengers from sunny Singapore to bustling Sydney, marking the airline’s inaugural flight. In the same year, Scoot launched flights to destinations including the Gold Coast, Tianjin, Taipei and Bangkok amongst others.

2013: Scoot fuelled K-wave dreams with the launch of flights to Seoul, South Korea.

2014: Scoot served three million passengers within two years of operations.

2015: Scoot welcomed the delivery of its first Boeing 787 Dreamliner, “Dream Start”, and celebrated Singapore’s 50th anniversary with a specially liveried aircraft.

2016: Scoot announced its merger with Tigerair, expanding its network to a host of new destinations in Asia and India.

2017: Scoot introduced its first long-haul flight service to Athens and marked its 50 millionth customer.

2018: Scoot became the first airline in Asia to launch a transactional chatbot to enhance our customer experience.

2019: In keeping with its commitment to make travel accessible for all, Scoot removed payment processing fees globally for all bookings made on its direct channels in September. In the same month, Scoot was named “Best Low-Cost Carrier” for the Asia Pacific region at the 30th Annual TTG Travel Awards, and a month later, won the “Best Low-Cost Carrier” award at the Travel Weekly Asia 2019 Readers’ Choice Awards.

2020: Scoot launched ScootHub, its one-stop in-flight portal that enables customers to order meals and shop on board their flights at their own convenience on their mobile devices. This supported a contactless, low-touch journey amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

2021: Scoot inducted the first Airbus A321neo into its fleet, aptly named Wings of Change, signifying the airline’s resilience and ability to weather through challenges. Scoot continued to be recognised as a trailblazer and was named 'World's Best Long Haul Low-Cost Airline' by Skytrax, and was the world's first low-cost carrier to attain the highest ratings for both the APEX Health Safety powered by SimpliFlying and Covid-19 Airline Safety Rating audits by Skytrax.

Our Network

- Scoot started off with flying to just six destinations in 2012 and has since expanded to a robust network of 73 destinations, connecting people across Australia, Asia, the Middle East, and Europe.
- In the past year, we have also added other new destinations such as London, Miri and Davao to our network.
- Riding on the K-wave that transverses boundaries and cultures, Scoot recently launched sales for flight services to and from Jeju, testament to our commitment to cater to the travel demand and preferences of our customers.

Our Fleet

- Our fleet has also expanded significantly, from just three aircraft in 2012 to 59 aircraft comprising narrowbody Airbus 320 aircraft and Boeing 787 aircraft, boosted by the recent addition of nine brand-new A321neos.
- The A321neos boast significantly higher fuel efficiency and thus more sustainable flying, allowing us to better serve short to mid-haul markets. This is also in line with our commitment to maintaining a young fleet to ensure we fly cleaner and more sustainably.
- We offer the following cabin classes:
 - A320 family fleet - Economy with the option of Stretch seats
 - B787 Dreamliners - Economy with the option of Stretch seats, Scoot-in-Silence and ScootPlus
