Scoot Adds Flight Capacity to Support Travel Demand

- More flights to cities including Iloilo City, Koh Samui, Perth, Seoul and Sydney
 - Boosted capacities to Bali, Taipei, Tokyo and Yogyakarta

SINGAPORE – Scoot, the low-cost subsidiary of Singapore Airlines (SIA), today announced increased flight frequencies and passenger capacity to support the strong demand for air travel in the upcoming months.

From 6 June 2025, flights to Iloilo City will increase from two to four times weekly, while flights to Cebu will increase from seven to ten times weekly from 24 June 2025. From 30 August 2025, services to Davao will increase to 12 times weekly, up from nine weekly services.

From 4 August 2025, frequencies to Perth will increase to 14 times weekly, up from 12 times weekly. Frequencies to Sydney will increase to 14 times weekly from 5 October 2025, up from 10 times weekly.

Scoot will also be increasing its services to Koh Samui from 21 times to 25 times weekly from 24 June 2025. Additionally, services to Taipei and Seoul (via Taipei) will increase from five times weekly to daily services from 2 August 2025.

Since 30 March 2025, Scoot has ramped up services to various cities in Indonesia, including Jakarta with 25 times weekly flights, up from 19 weekly flights. The airline has also increased passenger capacity to Bali, now operating its widebody Boeing 787 Dreamliners on all 21 weekly services. Similarly, passenger capacity to Yogyakarta has increased as Scoot now operates the Airbus A321 aircraft on all seven weekly flights to the city. Since 30 March 2025 as well, passenger capacity to Taipei and Tokyo (via Taipei) has increased with Scoot's widebody Boeing 787 Dreamliners operating all 12 weekly services. Since 15 April 2025, frequencies to Phu Quoc have increased from five to six times weekly.

Flight schedules are subject to government and regulatory approvals or changes. Scoot remains committed to enhancing its network and connectivity. The airline will continue to remain nimble, regularly review its routes and align its capacity with the demand for air travel and evolving travellers' needs.

About Scoot

Scoot is the low-cost subsidiary of Singapore Airlines. Scoot painted the skies yellow in June 2012 and merged with Tigerair Singapore in July 2017, retaining the Scoot brand for a new chapter of growth. To date, Scoot operates a modern and efficient fleet of over 50 aircraft, comprising widebody Boeing 787 Dreamliners, single-aisle Airbus A320 family aircraft, and the Embraer E190-E2 aircraft. Scoot currently flies to over 70 destinations across 18 countries and territories in Asia-Pacific, the Middle East and Europe.

Scoot is more than your typical low-cost carrier (LCC). Scoot is passionate about travel, connecting people and cultures, and pushing boundaries. It does so by continually innovating and seeking new opportunities for growth. As a leading and award-winning LCC, Scoot strives to provide its customers with reliable and quality services, customisable and differentiated product offerings, as well as comfortable and seamless travel experiences at great value.
