SINGAPORE – Scoot, the low-cost subsidiary of Singapore Airlines (SIA), today announced the launch of a new KrisFlyer award chart, allowing members to redeem Scoot flights with miles at attractive rates. The award chart offers greater rewards and benefits, with one-way flight redemptions starting from as low as 1,500 KrisFlyer miles for Economy class base fares.

Since joining the KrisFlyer Rewards programme in 2015, Scoot has been working to expand its offerings to KrisFlyer members, including a newly launched award chart for members to redeem their miles for flights to popular destinations, such as Bangkok, Hangzhou, Ipoh, Jeju, Taipei, and Vienna, amongst others.

Starting today, KrisFlyer members can redeem Scoot Saver or Scoot Advantage seats in Economy class, available on a first-come, first-served basis. KrisFlyer miles can be used to redeem Scoot Economy Class base fares only. Similar to taxes, additional add-ons can be paid separately via other payment methods, providing members with more flexibility and choices to tailor their travel journeys. Members may also earn KrisFlyer miles at 1 mile per SGD1 on Scoot-operated flights for their purchased add-ons, terms and conditions apply.

“We believe that travel should be accessible and rewarding and launching Scoot’s award chart is our way of providing greater value for KrisFlyer members. With Scoot’s award chart, KrisFlyer members can now get more out of their miles through redemption to travel to cities including Hangzhou, Jeju, Taipei, and Vienna at attractive redemption rates. This way, members can maximise their miles to explore more destinations across the SIA Group’s network,” said Calvin Chan, Chief Commercial Officer, Scoot.

While members can already pay for their flight bookings either fully or partially with KrisFlyer miles today, this latest initiative reinforces Scoot’s commitment to enhancing member benefits by enabling flight redemptions at fixed rates according to the award chart. At the same time, PPS Club, KrisFlyer Elite Gold, and KrisFlyer Elite Silver members will continue to enjoy their exclusive benefits when flying with Scoot. These include an additional 5kg baggage upgrade with purchase of a minimum of 20kg baggage online, complimentary standard seat selection and priority boarding. PPS Club and KrisFlyer Elite Gold members can additionally enjoy a one-time flight change fee waiver.

Award flight redemptions are now available via Scoot’s official website and mobile app. For more information on Scoot’s award chart, please refer to our page here.
