Scoot Launches Ticket Sales for New Singapore-Palembang Route

- ✓ Ticket sales commence for new 4-times-weekly Singapore-Palembang services starting 23 November 2017
- ✓ Third daily frequency to be added for Denpasar, Bali
- ✓ Special promotional fares to Palembang available from 23 October 2017

Singapore – Scoot has launched ticket sales for its new four-times-weekly Singapore-Palembang services commencing on 23 November 2017, to be operated with its A320 aircraft. With this service, Scoot increases its ports in Indonesia to four, including Denpasar, Jakarta, and Surabaya.

“As one of Indonesia’s fastest growing cities, Palembang complements our extensive Southeast Asia network and it is a welcome addition to our expanding footprint in Indonesia - a crucial market for Scoot,” said Mr Lee Lik Hsin, Scoot CEO. “For holidaymakers seeking a food adventure, the local fare features many must-try dishes such as pempek, a delicious fishcake delicacy.”

On 23 November 2017 as well, Scoot will be launching a third daily service between Singapore and Denpasar, Bali, with its A320 aircraft. Launched in response to popular demand, this new daily service will depart Singapore mid-morning and arrive at Denpasar in the early afternoon. Flights to Surabaya will also increase from six a week to seven. With these changes, Scoot will boost its Indonesia flights to 53 weekly return services, up from 41 presently.
