Sydney's Coastal Walks & Beaches

Manly Lagoon to North Head

Sand, sea and stunning lookouts for the family

Catch the iconic Manly ferry with prime views of the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Sydney Opera House to the beautiful Manly Beach and enjoy a walk up to the clifftops of North Head. You can even explore on a bicycle!

DON'T MISS!

The scenic Fairfax Walk connects 3 fantastic lookouts and is an easy circuit, ideal for children. It's the perfect location to spot migrating whales from June to October.

Watson's Bay

Breathtaking coastal cliffs with the finest seafood

Discover the best of both worlds with Sydney Harbour on one side and the vast Pacific Ocean waves crashing onto dramatic cliffs on the other side.

DON'T MISS!

Enjoy prime Australian seafood at the famous Doyles Restaurant on the Beach. If you visit at sunset, you can watch the Sydney city skyline light up!

Bondi to Bronte

Dramatic coastlines and the coolest ocean pools

Stroll along the dramatic cliffs between two of Sydney's iconic beaches, Bondi and Bronte. Stop at various lookouts along the way for photo opportunities. For some action, take a dip at the iconic Bondi Icebergs Pool – or give surfing a try!

DON'T MISS!

Sculpture by the Sea, the world's largest annual free outdoor sculpture exhibition from 19 Oct - 5 Nov 2017.

Barangaroo Reserve

Sydney's newest waterfront park

A spectacular, brand new waterfront park that sits right in the heart of Sydney city. Check out its extraordinary shoreline laid with skilfully cut sandstone slabs. Wander along the winding paths around its hills and beautifully designed terrace gardens.

DON'T MISS!

Venture into The Avenue, Sydney's newest High Street at Barangaroo and discover a trove of hand-crafted goodness, including Bourke Street Bakery - Sydney's unofficial temple of pastry.

Cockatoo Island

Explore a historic UNESCO World-Heritage Island

Wander around one of Australia's most fascinating historical islands and discover its colourful pasts as a shipbuilding yard, Commonwealth naval base as well as a convict island. Entrance is free – simply catch a ferry from Circular Quay or Darling Harbour.

DON'T MISS!

Camp overnight at what Lonely Planet described as 'one of the world's most spectacularly located campsites'
